WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

REFLECTION

It is all ablaze with grateful adoration. The delightful study of the Psalms has yielded me boundless profit and ever-growing pleasure; common gratitude constrains me to communicate to others a portion of the benefit, with the prayer that it may induce them to search further for themselves.

Charles Spurgeon

Psalms, then, are not just a matchless primer of teaching but a medicine chest for the heart and the best possible guide for practical living.

Tim Keller

*Now these are the last words of David: The oracle of David, the son of Jesse, the oracle of the man who was raised on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel:
"The Spirit of the Lord speaks by me: his word is on my tongue."*

2 Samuel 23:1-2

THE LORD CLEANSSES US IN CHRIST

READING OF THE WORD

Matthew 26:36-46

Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I go over there and pray.” And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me.” And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.” And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, “So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.” And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words again. Then he came to the disciples and said to them, “Sleep and take your rest later on. See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand.”

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

CONFESSION OF SIN

Father, forgive me for my absence of holy shame, and my unholy boldness in evil. Since the day of my new birth, I have doubted my Lord to his face, murmured unblushing in his presence, worshipped him in a slovenly manner, and sinned without bewailing myself on account of it. Were my heart not so hardened, I would display more holy fear and a far deeper contrition of spirit. Woe is me for I am undone, and much of my former stubbornness remains. Yet, blessed be the name of the Lord, my disease is not incurable! My Savior's precious blood is the remedy! His mercy will soften my heart, and his grace shall remove all of my guilt*Silent & Personalized Confession of Sin....* Amen!

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Philippians 3:7-9

Whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith.

HIS TITHES AND OUR OFFERINGS

ANTHEM

“He Come to Us as One Unknown”
arr. Ferguson/Adult Choir

He comes to us as one unknown, a breath unseen, unheard;
As though within a heart of stone, or shriveled seed in darkness sown,
A pulse of being stirred, a pulse of being stirred.

He comes when souls in silence lie and thoughts of day depart;
Half seen upon the inward eye, a falling star across the sky
Of night within the heart, of night within the heart.

He comes to us in sound of seas, the ocean’s fume and foam;
Yet small and still upon the breeze, a wind that stirs the tops of trees,
A voice to call us home, a voice to call us home.

He comes in love as once he came by flesh and blood and and birth;
To bear within our mortal frame a life, a death, a saving name,
For ev’ry child of earth, for ev’ry of earth.

He comes in truth when faith is grown; believed, obeyed, adored;
The Christ in all the Scriptures shown, as yet unseen, but not unknown,
Our Savior and our Lord, Our Savior and our Lord.

† WE CONFESS OUR FAITH

The Heidelberg Catechism, Q&A 1

What is your only comfort in life and in death?

My only comfort in life and in death is that I am not my own, but belong, body and soul, in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ.

He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil.

He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation.

Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

† BENEDICTION

Romans 15:13

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

His kingdom is forever.
